

[youtube:www.youtube.com/watch?v=2lwwXdslzCg]

Question asked at a conference in 2010: Could the human race die out? World Health Organisation is concerned about risks from virus pandemics and plague. Expect major antiviral research including vaccine technology. Lessons from Sars and Bird Flu. Expect major antiviral research including vaccine technology. Lessons from Sars and Bird Flu. Pharmaceutical company progress slow on antiviral medication. Virus jumps between species – animal to human. Health care impact of viral infections. Hospitals, doctors, nurses and other health care workers were under huge pressure during Sars outbreak. Keynote conference speaker Patrick Dixon at Stein Am Rhein ...

See more from: Patrick Dixon on YouTube