

[youtube:www.youtube.com/watch?v=yBRxIWyntjY]

Examples from global banks, pharmaceutical companies and manufacturing. How market analysts push for mergers, acquisitions, demergers and company breakup. Profits for lawyers and banks but most mergers destroy shareholder value. Rationale for global corporations and economies of scale. Talent often leaves corporations soon after a merger is announced, taking intellectual capital, customer knowledge and relationships. Mergers of two corporations and two cultures can look ...

See more from: Patrick Dixon on YouTube